Election

SEC. 2. That for the good order and government of said town, it shall be lawful for the male inhabitants thereof, having the qualifications of electors of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Minnesota, to meet at the place of holding the last general election in the precinct of Henderson, on the first Wednesday of July next, and at the same time annually thereafter, at such place in said town as the town council may direct, and then and there proceed by ballot to elect one President, one Recorder and three Trustees, being householders of said town, and having the qualifications of electors as aforesaid, who shall hold their offices one year and until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and such President, Recorder and Trustees, being so elected and qualified, shall constitute the town council of said town; any three of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business pertaining to their duties.

Judges & Clerk

SEC. 3. At the first election to be holden under this act, there shall be chosen viva voce by the electors present at the time for opening the polls on the day for holding said first election, two judges, and a clerk of said election, who shall take an oath or affirmation faithfully to discharge the duties required of them by this act, and at all subsequent elections the Trustees, or any two of them, shall be judges, and the Recorder, or in his absence, some person to be appointed by the judges, shall be clerk. The polls shall be opened between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and close at four in the afternoon of said day; and at the close of the polls the votes shall be counted, and a true statement thereof proclaimed to the voters present by one of the judges, and the clerk shall make a true record thereof, and within five days thereafter, he shall give notice to the persons so elected of their election; and it shall be the duty of the said town council, at least ten days before each and every election, to give notice of the same by setting up advertisements at three of the most public places in said town.

Sec. 4. Each member of said town council, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take an oath or affirmation to support the constitution of the United States, and also an oath of office. Take oath

Sec. 5. The President, Recorder and Trustees of said town shall be and are hereby created a body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, to be known and distinguished by the name and style of "The Town of Clarksville," and shall be capable in law by their corporate name aforesaid, to acquire property, real, personal and mixed, for the use of said town, and may sell and convey the same at pleasure. They may have a common seal, which they may break, alter or renew at pleasure. They may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in all manner of actions in all courts of law or equity; and when any suit shall be commenced against said corporation, the first process shall be served by an attested copy thereof, left with the Recorder, or at his usual place of residence, at least six days previous to the return day of such process. Created body corporate

Sec. 6. The President, and in his absence, the Recorder, shall preside at all meetings of the town council; and the Recorder shall attend all meetings of the town council, and make a fair and accurate record of all their proceedings, and of the by-laws, rules and ordinances made or passed by the common council aforesaid, and the same shall at all times be open for inspection of the electors of said town; but in case of the absence, or inability of the Recorder, the Trustees may appoint a clerk, pro tempore. Who shall preside

Sec. 7. The town council shall have power to fill all vacancies which may happen in said board, from the qualified voters of said town, who shall hold their appointments until the next annual election, and until successors shall be elected and qualified; and in the absence of the President and Recorder from any meeting of the town council, the Trustees shall have power to appoint any two of their number to perform the duties of President and Recorder for the time being.

Sec. 8. The said town council shall have power to make, ordain and establish by-laws, ordinances, rules and regulations for the government of said town; and the same to alter, amend or repeal at pleasure, to provide in such by-laws for the appointment or election of a Treasurer, town Marshal, and all the subordinate officers, which they may think necessary for the good government and well being of said town; to prescribe their duties and determine the period of their appointment, and the fees they shall be entitled to receive for their respective services, when the same is not otherwise provided for by this act, and to require of them to take an oath of office previous to entering upon the duties of their respective offices, and may further require of them a bond with security conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective offices. The town council shall also have power to fix to the violation of the by-laws and ordinances of the corporation, reasonable fines and penalties: Provided, That such by-laws and ordinances be not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States, or of this Territory. And provided, also, that no by-laws Fill vacancies or ordinances of said corporation shall take effect or be in force until the same shall have been posted up at least ten days in one of the most public places within said town, and the certificate of the Recorder entered upon the record of said town council, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient evidence of such publication.

By-laws

SEC. 9. The town council shall, at the expiration of each and every year, cause to be made out and posted up as aforesaid, the receipts and expenditures of the preceeding year.

Receipts and expenditure

SEC. 10. The town council shall have power to regulate and improve the levees, streets and alleys, and determine the width of side-walks in said town; to regulate the public grounds, to erect a new market house, and regulate the markets, to remove all nuisances and obstructions from the streets and commons of said town, and do all things which similar corporations have power to do, in order to provide for and secure health, cleanliness and good order in said town.

Improve streets

SEC. 11. For the purpose of more effectually enabling the said town council to carry into effect the provisions of this act, they are hereby authorized and empowered to assess a tax for corporation purposes, within the limits of said corporation, made taxable by the laws of this Territory, so that said tax shall not exceed in any one year, five mills on the dollar of valuation, as the same may be found on the books of the county commissioners of the county within which said town may be located at the time of assessing said tax. The town shall also have power if authorized to do so by a majority of all the electors in said town, at any meeting called for that purpose, to levy an additional tax as above specified, sufficient to organize and establish a fire company, and purchase an engine, hose and other necessary apparatus for the extinguishment of fires in said town; public notice of which meeting and the object thereof, shall be given by posting up a written or printed notice thereof, in at least three of the most public places in said town, ten days before the time of such meeting.

Assess tax.

SEC. 12. When any tax is levied, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to make out a duplicate of the taxes, charging each individual owning property in said corporation with the amount assessed on each item of property, as found on the books of the County Commissioners of said county, which duplicate shall be certified by the President and Recorder, and one copy thereof shall be placed in the hands of the Marshal, or such other person as shall be appointed collector, whose duty it shall be to collect said tax, in the same manner, under the same regulations as other county taxes are collected; and the said Marshal, or such other person as may be appointed collector, shall, immediately after collecting said tax, pay the same over to the treasurer of said corporation, and take his receipt therefor; and the said Marshal or other collector, shall have the same power to sell both real and personal property, for the non-payment of the corporation taxes as is given to the county collector; and when necessary, the Recorder shall have power to make deeds in the same manner that sheriffs do; and the Marshal or other collector shall receive for his fees such sum as the town council may direct, not exceeding six per centum on all moneys so by him collected, to be paid by the Treasurer on the order of the Recorder.
